

ANCOATS

VOLUME 4: LITTLE ITALY

For our next menu we delve further into the culinary world of American Italian. Pork chop parms, carbonara stuffed garlic bread pasta bombs and boursin arancini are just a few of the highlights. Our new home of Ancoats is also officially recognised as Little Italy due to the large Italian population in the early 20th century.

Classic deep dish pizzas remain our (garlic) bread and butter. We travel the length and breadth of Chicago to takeaway the best elements and create the ultimate comfort food.
